The program fee includes the following:

- Accommodation in a fully equipped studio, with weekly cleaning and wifi.
- 24/7 access to the coworking space.
- An international community of expats and remote workers.
- Local hosts.
- Possibility to participate in all activities organized by NOMAD MONTH and the coworking space.
- Networking events.
- Local SIM card with data.
- First time in Prague Guide

d. What the program fee does NOT cover

The program fee does not include:

- Airfare and other transportation expenses.
- Passport and visa expenses.
- Health insurance.
- Personal expenses such as meals and drinks, etc.

- Extra activities such as weekend day trips, admission fees, sporting activities, etc.
- Any other items not specified in the section above.

e. Cancellation policy

If you cancel more than 7 days before the program start date, you are entitled to a 50% refund of the program fee.

If you cancel less than 7 days before the program start date, the full amount of the program fee is non-refundable.

f. Refund of the program fee

Cancellation of the program by NOMAD MONTH before the start date. In the event that NOMAD MONTH is forced to cancel the program before the start date for any reason, you are entitled to a full refund of the monies paid to NOMAD MONTH. NOMAD MONTH will notify you as soon as possible in the event of a cancellation and provide instructions on how to receive a full refund.

However, in the event that NOMAD MONTH is forced to cancel a trip due to unforeseen circumstances, such as natural disasters, political unrest or any other factor outside of our control, NOMAD MONTH reserves the right to either provide a refund or a credit for a future program. The decision will be made at our discretion, and will depend on the specific circumstances of the cancellation. NOMAD MONTH will make every effort to provide you with options that are fair and reasonable under the circumstances. Please note that NOMAD MONTH is not responsible for any additional expenses incurred by you as a result of a trip cancellation, such as airline tickets or other.

Refunds will be issued within 14 days from the cancellation notice.

Cancellation of a program in progress by NOMAD MONTH. In the event that NOMAD MONTH is forced to cancel a program in progress, you are entitled to a partial refund, prorated based on the remaining number of days.

Refunds will be issued within 14 days from the cancellation notice.

Other. NOMAD MONTH will not issue refunds for any other reason not stated above.

2. Travel Documents

You must be in possession of the appropriate documentation prior to departure. It is your responsibility to obtain all travel-related documents required for your participation in the program. If you are unable to obtain a passport or any applicable visas, NOMAD MONTH's standard Cancellation Charges will apply (see section 1e).

3. Medical Insurance, Health, Safety and Risks

- a. Medical Insurance. By participating in the program, you acknowledge and accept that it is your responsibility to purchase adequate medical insurance coverage for the duration of the program. NOMAD MONTH will not be held liable for any medical expenses incurred during the program, including those resulting from illness, injury, or accident.

- b. Emergency contact. We require all participants to provide the name and contact information of an emergency contact person prior to the start of the tour. In case of an emergency, we reserve the right to contact the designated emergency contact person provided by the participant.
- c. Risks of International Travel. By participating in the program, you assume full responsibility for your own safety and wellbeing for the whole duration of the program. While NOMAD MONTH takes every reasonable precaution to ensure a safe and enjoyable travel experience, there are inherent risks associated with travel, such as accidents, illness, crime, terrorism, adverse weather and other unforeseeable events. It is your responsibility to exercise caution, follow safety instructions provided by the local hosts, and use your own judgement when participating in activities during your stay abroad. NOMAD MONTH will not be held liable for any loss, damage, injury, or death that may occur during the program, whether caused by your own actions or by factors outside of our control.
You are solely responsible for, without limitation, all air carrier change and cancellation fees and penalties as well as baggage and personal effects.

4. Disruption of Nomad Month Program

NOMAD MONTH will make all reasonable efforts to ensure that the components of the program are provided as described in NOMAD MONTH's marketing materials. However, NOMAD MONTH reserves the right to modify any aspect of the program, including but not limited to the dates of the program, accommodations and activities, in the event of unforeseen circumstances beyond our control. Such circumstances may include but are not limited to natural disasters, political unrest, or safety concerns. NOMAD MONTH will make every effort to communicate any changes to the program as soon as possible.

NOMAD MONTH highly recommends that all participants purchase comprehensive travel insurance to protect against potential loss, damage, or cancellation of the trip. This insurance should cover any unforeseen circumstances that may arise before or during the trip, including illness, injury, family emergencies, or other unexpected events that may prevent you from traveling. It is your responsibility to obtain suitable travel insurance. NOMAD MONTH will not be liable for any losses or damages incurred as a result of a participant's failure to obtain adequate insurance coverage. We strongly advise you to carefully review their insurance policy and to understand the coverage and limitations before departure.

5. Code of Conduct

As a participant in a NOMAD MONTH program, you agree to abide by NOMAD MONTH's code of conduct. This includes treating all fellow participants, guides, and local communities with respect and consideration, refraining from any illegal or unethical behavior, and following the instructions of the local hosts. You also agree to comply with all local laws and regulations. Any behavior that is deemed disruptive or disrespectful to others or that violates local laws may result in your removal from the program, with no refunds provided. If your participation ends due to misbehaviour, it will be your responsibility to arrange your transportation back home and cover any related expenses.

6. Photographs and Video for Promotional Use

By participating in a NOMAD MONTH program, you grant NOMAD MONTH the right to take photographs and videos of you during the trip for promotional purposes. This includes but is not limited to using such materials on our website, social media channels, brochures, and other marketing materials. You agree that these materials may be used by NOMAD MONTH without further notice or compensation to you. If you do not wish to be photographed or filmed, please inform a team member before the beginning of the program.

7. Liability

As part of our terms and conditions, we would like to highlight that NOMAD MONTH and its officers, directors, employees, representatives, or agents will not be held liable for any loss, damage, injury, or death to any participant or third party that may occur during the program. By participating in the program, the participant acknowledges that they are assuming any and all risks associated with the program, and they release and hold harmless our company and its affiliates from any and all claims, actions, suits, or demands arising from or related to their participation in the program.

8. Severability. If any provision of these Terms is determined to be illegal or unenforceable, the remaining provisions of these Terms remain in full force.

By signing below, I acknowledge that I have read and agree to the above terms and conditions.
